DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The amendment filed on April 11, 2006 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. Newly-presented claims 142 and 143 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. More specifically, the reasons for this rejection are: (A) Claim 142 is somewhat confusing because it would appear that the word --a-- was omitted immediately before the word “downstream” at the beginning of the fifth line of the claim. Furthermore, the fifth line is also ambiguous because the word “form” should apparently be changed to --forming--. (B) Claims 143 is somewhat vague because the word --a-- has apparently been omitted between the words “on” and “downstream” on the sixth line of the claim.

Double Patenting

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the “right to exclude” granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re

Art Unit: 1724

Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claims 1-24, 36-87, and 94-143 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-10 of applicant's copending application Serial No. 10/545,135. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they appear to only differ in rather minor details such as using different electrical potentials or perforated or non-perforated grids. These appear to be obvious matters of choice to one having ordinary skill in the art.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 1-24, 36-87, and 94-141 would be allowable upon the filing of a proper terminal disclaimer.

6. Upon the filing of a proper terminal disclaimer, claims 142 and 143 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejections under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Art Unit: 1724

7. As allowable subject matter has been indicated, applicant's reply must either comply with all formal requirements or specifically traverse each requirement not complied with. See 37 CFR 1.111(b) and MPEP § 707.07(a).

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims in this case have been considered but are moot in view of the new grounds of rejection.
